

Rochester (NY) will mark the 100th anniversary of William James' presidential address to the American Philosophical Association with a full day of events, free and open to the public. For further details, call

Tim Madigan (585-415-5925) or write tmadigan@rochester.rr.com

December 28th 2006

William James

"one of the best rooms on Papini's Corridor"

At St. Paul's Episcopal Church:

25 Westminster Rd, across from GEH

9:00-10:30 "The Energies of Men"

seminar

10:30-12:30 "The Moral Equivalent of War"

seminar

Featuring Rufino Pabico on anti-imperialism

Between East and Park:

walk

12:30-2:30 Squirrel Watch
& stroll with William James

At St. Paul's Episcopal Church:

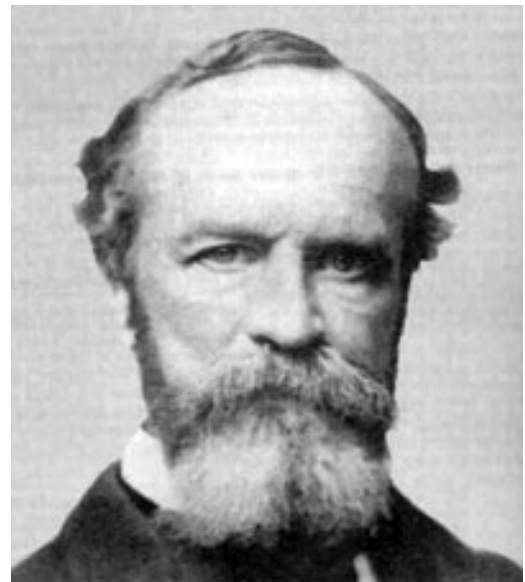

25 Westminster Rd, across from GEH

2:30-3:30 "A Visit with William James"

reader's theater and discussion

3:30-4:30 James vs. Clifford

on the Will to Believe debate

At the University of Rochester:

In the Old Hawkins Room of the Medical School, 601 Elmwood Ave.

5:30-6:30 James and Nitrous Oxide discussion

At the Baobab Cultural Center:

talks by T. Madigan & D. White

728 University Ave., next to Writers & Books

7:00-10:00

"Personal Reflections on William James and the Ladder of Spirituality"

"Philosophy and Personalism at the University of Lagos, 1973-75"

(location TBA)

séance

10-midnight: William James and Spiritualism